THE GREAT
Amerioan Discovery
—IS—
Dr. Barber's Diapent.

THIS valuable Medicine is composed principally of Herbs, by whose stimulating and penetrating properties, it is when applied, instantaneously diffused through the whole system allaying the most intense pain in a few minutes. You are invited to call at No. 2 Exchange-st, when you will be convinced that no preparation ever offered to the public, for the relief of this afflicted, possesses in so high a degree its perfect curative qualities. Its action in all cases is prompt, powerful, and certain. In the least entering of the system, relaxes free use to the joints and limbs, which have long been rendered by years of affliction almost entirely useless. It is, therefore, hailed by the suffering as the greatest blessing of the age, and no one should ever allow himself to be without this powerful remedy in his house. All who have once witnessed its magic influence over disease, and its potency in relieving pain, however severe. The perfect consciousness of its unquestionable efficacy, by actual experiment makes me bold in asserting its transcendent virtues. By referring to the numerous certificates in the hands of agents, which were given voluntarily and cheerfully, from a sense of gratitude and justice, by persons of the first respectability, and their statements admit of no doubt, you will find it has no equal in the whole world, for speedy, certain, and lasting cure of Rheumatism. It will also cure Neuralgia, Pains in the Side and Back, Cramp, Swellings, numbness, Weakness of Joints, Spine, &c. Also, Dyspepsia, and all Nervous Diseases proceeding from the Stomach. Also, Dr. Barber's Corn Resolvent, a sure remedy for Corns, Bunions, &c., &c. Sold by Dyott & Son, A. B. & D. Sand, Barrow Perry, Boston, at all druggists of Pure Medicines.

BURIAL CASES!

THESE CASES are extensively used, and possess valuable advantages over all other for transportation. Perfectly Air Tight, and for ordinary interments. They are made of the most Impenetrable Materials, and examined inside and out, to prevent rust of corrosion, and when properly cemented, we have the gratifying reflection that the bodies of our deceased, loved ones enclosed in them are Free from Irruption of Water or Deprecations of Vermin, and may without offensive odor be kept, obviating the necessity of hasty burials, or if desired, transported to a distant land. The remains of the late

Hon. Henry Clay, Daniel Webster,

PATENTS
American and Foreign Office.
AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
WITH U. S. PATENT OFFICE,
WASHINGTON
No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St.
BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber, (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office under the Act of 1837,) determined to present such advantages in applying for patents, superior to those offered inventors by solicitors, has made arrangements, whereby, on application, (post paid,) prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid heretofore by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the whole fee, through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in the U. S. and foreign countries, prepared, and advice rendered, on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors here apply to obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent. less than those of others in the profession,) but avail themselves of the experience of twenty years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, its extensive library of legal and mechanical books, and correct account of patents granted in this and other countries, besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries secured through agents of the highest respectability.

B. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, B. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, filled the Chief Clerk's Office as official for enrolling Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and the business also was conducted with such ability, fidelity, and accuracy. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring those who may employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

[From the present Commissioner.]

"August 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, B. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively employed in the transaction of business with the Office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the rules and laws relating to practice in the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHARLES MASON,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

DE QUINOY'S IMPROVED
Non-Explosive Kerosene & Fluid
LAMPS and CANS.

HAVING purchased the Patent right for the State of Maine for the above Lamps, I am now prepared to offer them to merchants generally, adapted to the use of Parlors, Churches, Stores, Factories, Vessels, Steamboats and Railroads.

These Lamps are constructed on scientific and philosophical principles, and are the only safe ever introduced, and have given perfect satisfaction during Five years being made of the most durable material, not subject to set down from breakage or corrosion—will burn freely without smoke, giving as good and steady light, the nearest to gas ever produced.

The above Lamps have proved, after three years trial, to be the best Lamps in use, giving universal satisfaction, and for long periods of sale.

These Lamps will be sold at wholesale or retail as low as the ordinary Camphene and Fluid Lamp.

SINGER'S
SEWING MACHINES!

THESE machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States. THE FIRST PRIZE AND GOLD MEDAL has recently been awarded to them at the great Exposition at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the World's verdict to superiority.

Great improvements have just been added, so that they perform without noise, will cease to be operated, at the slightest touch, and speed, to that they may be driven at any speed, as they will run as light and steady at 2,000 stitches per minute as at 500.

Tailoring much work can be done in a day. The greatest clothing and shoe manufacturing establishments in the country use these machines extensively. They are competent to perform every sort of work in the most perfect style.

As the demand very great numbers of inferior or entirely worthless counterfeits of the Lerow & Blodgett, Avery, Wilson, Grover & Baker, and other patents, which have been sold, but cannot be used to any advantage, we hereby offer to redeem all such machines, and also purchase ones of our own manufacture in exchange for the new and latest improved machines on liberal terms. All old machines thus obtained by us will be broken up and destroyed. For particulars apply by letter or personally at our New York office.

N. B. Local Agents wanted to make sales of our improved Sewing Machines. To persons properly qualified for the business a rare opportunity for profitable and pleasant employment is offered.

PLACING PEOPLE RIGHT.—The Journal of Thursday, the editor of a column or more humbly deprecating the displeasure of the Democrat at certain remarks which it (the Journal) had made about anti-Nebraskaism, and bearing somewhat against President Pierce. The editor hastens to say that the construction which the Democrat thereby placed upon its remarks by way of possible excuse for its apparent disloyalty to the democratic alliance, was the correct one—and intimates that it intended not the slightest outrespect to its good friends the democrats, and hopes it will have here forgiveness for anything which may have that appearance. The editor says "he has no personal or political ill-will to President Pierce"—(an important and not very consistent admission, after saying that it holds him responsible for "the gross outrage of repealing the Missouri Compromise," and that it still feels "intensely indignant" at that outrage.) If the editor has no political ill-will against the President, he has perhaps no great objection to his re-election—especially as his remarks in the next paragraph that abide from the Missouri Compromise business, he believes the Administration will compare favorably with its predecessors, and form a chapter in the history of this country of which no American need be ashamed." (What does the journal think of the assertion which the President is said to give to the spurious Legislature elected for Kansas by the Missouri predatory ruffians?)

The Journal next further sets himself right with his "able contemporary," and makes his peace conclusively, as follows:

In these great cardinal principles we are glad to believe that the Democratic party does not differ from us—actuated by the spirit of these great sentiments, there is neither inconsistency nor incongruity in any alliance which they may form for the common good, and for the practical extension of these common principles.

The Journal, in this article, makes a great deal of general talk about its condemnation of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, it having been opposed to making Kansas a State, and to the extension of Slavery, says not a word about the present pending question of refusing admittance to Kansas as a State, for admitting other slave States from territories, free or otherwise.

does the Journal say on this point, distinctly. Will it oppose the admission of any State from territories once free? and will it oppose the election of any man who is or can be in favor of such admission?

TEVERINO, a Romance by George Sand; translated by a lady. New York: W. P. Fetridge & Co. 1855.

Madame Dudevant, the celebrated French romancist, who writes under the name of "George Sand," is a woman of undoubted genius, and of great popularity as a writer, among her countrymen. That some of her writings have an immoral tendency cannot be denied; and we do not know that the present work is free from that charge,—although, as in all of her romances, love forms a good portion of both story and plot.

The authoress herself says of "Teverino"—"In Teverino, I have imagined a young man possessing power, like the first Eve, over the birds of creation, and I wish to observe here that it is not purely fictitious creation, more than the wonders told of the poetic admirable impostor, Apollonius of Tyana, fables contrary to the spirit of Christianity. We live in an age in which the natural can which have heretofore passed for miracles, not as yet wholly explained, but in which already undeniably established that on earth there are no miracles, and that the laws of the universe though not at all as yet fathomed and defined, are not on that account, less constant able to eternal order."

In the present volume is a very interesting Biographical Sketch of Madame Dudevant, from which it appears that she descended on her father's side from Augustus II, King of Poland—illegitimately of course. Her age is also 50.

The book is for sale by O. R. Patch.

Advices from Australia give most encouraging accounts of the progress of the gold productions. The shipments this year, up to 1st of September, had amounted to £6,500,000, and were expected before the close of the twelvemonth to reach £10,000,000.

Through the liberality of Jared Sparks, the management of Bowdoin College has been enabled to fill out one of the panels on the interior walls of the Chapel. Artists are busily engaged upon a design from Raphael's Cartoon of "St. Paul at Athens." Other lovers of the arts might generously imitate the example of Mr. Sparks by completing the remainder of the panels according to the original plan.

THE CITY CHRON. AND COUNTRY INTELLIGENCER," is the name of a spirit little advertising sheet, just started by Mr. S. P. Wilmore—to be published weekly in this city, at fifty cents per annum. It is handsomely arranged, and neatly printed.

Twenty-five years ago Iowa was a wilderness tenanted only by the savage. Now she has a civilized population estimated at six hundred thousand and constantly increasing. The emigration this year has been very heavy.

LETTERS DETAINED. The following letters, directed to parties in Maine, are detained in the Boston Post Office for lack of prepayment of postage:—Bushrod W. Hinckley, Bluehill; Julia Fenton, Hatch, Tompson & Co., Bangor; Alcott & Co., Camden; Bibbs & Rand Belfast; S. F. Balch, Waldoboro; William Sanger, Thomaston.

TREATMENT OF CALIFORNIA PASSENGERS.—The San Francisco Times received by the last steamer, contains sundry statements and resolutions of passengers on the steamer Cortez on her last trip from San Juan del Sud to San Francisco, which would indicate a most reprehensible disregard of the health and comfort of the passengers by the Steamship Company or the officers of the boat. The custom of crowding the California steamers to an illegal and dangerous extent is altogether too common, and should be prosecuted to the utmost penalty of the law.

The following are the resolutions passed by the cabin passengers; and the statement made by the steerage passengers:

Whereas, By the arrangements of the officers or agents, of the Nicaragua Transit Company the passengers from New York via the Northern Light, of Sept. 20th were detained upon the Isthmus of Nicaragua, without proper means of sustenance, whereby disease and death have multiplied around us.

And whereas, tickets for over eight hundred passengers were sold in New York to be carried from San Juan del Sud, on a steamer of Custom House certificate, allowed to carry five hundred and fifty-eight passengers; therefore

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting the agents of said Company have criminally trifled with the lives and health of their passengers, to an extent unheard of and unwarrantable in a civilized community; and in despite of the crowded state of the steamer Cortez, as much beyond her capacity as decency and health have marked our way.

J. McKINSTRY SMITH, President.
H. Robinson, Vice-President.

The steerage passengers say:

When we landed at Virgin Bay, we were put on shore in the middle of the night, in a storm of rain, and a few of us see very dangerous for the lives of all the passengers. When we arrived in the town we found the settlement small to accommodate half our number; hundreds were compelled to lay in the streets and on the tops of buildings, there being no covering or accommodations to protect them from the heavy rains or deadly miasma of the climate. We were afterwards put in common wagons instead of which broke down on the road, and women with children were compelled to walk the entire Isthmus, which occupied a tedious day, broke our rest at night, and left us exposed to the scorching rays of the tropical sun during the day. For their unnecessary detention, three cholera cases occurred, and during our detention, three deaths by cholera in the settlement, which, in addition to the general insalubrity, broke out among us, and we buried before we left there. For their unnecessary detention, and to save expense to the Company, we were compelled to lie down our beds at midnight and go on board this vessel before any preparation had been made for our reception, where we were detained two days by coaling, and fed on two meals a day.

WASHINGTON SPECULATIONS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post says:

"Richardson's nomination by the Administration party is looked upon as a highly significant indication of the turn things will take in the next Presidential campaign. Coupled as it is with resolutions making adherence to the non-intervention platform a test of political soundness, it points to nothing else than a renomination of Pierce upon that platform. Douglas, the disaffected, has shaken hands and united with the Administration in this project for a second term, being satisfied with the nomination of Richardson, his opponent, and the engineer of his pet Nebraska bill in the House of Representatives."

The same writer also says:

"After the organization, the general disposition is to take up the Kansas debeate question immediately, and thus draw the lines of political action in the coming Presidential campaign. An exciting and protracted debate is anticipated, and that settled nothing of special importance will be concluded by Congress before the holidays."

KENNEBEC HALL.—We understand the Central Market House Company have decided to call their New Market and Hall, the "Kennebeck Market," and "Kennebeck Hall."—So it is Norombega no more.

SENATOR DOUGLAS. The Washington Union of December 2, contains the following telegraphic dispatch:

TERRE HAUTE Dec. 1.—Judge Douglas is now out of danger, and is improving rapidly. He will leave for Washington within the next two weeks.

Senator Douglas's disease is said to be hemorrhage of the throat, produced by a bronchial affection of some years' standing.

THE VOTE FOR SPEAKER.—Mr. Greeley, of the Tribune, has analyzed the votes given for Speaker on the first day:

The House proceeded to vote four times for Speaker, without result. Messrs. T. J. D. Fuller of Maine, Barclay of Pennsylvania, and Wells of Wisconsin, all elected as anti-Nebraska democrats, voting steadily for Richardson, who was Chairman of the Committee who reported and pushed through the Nebraska bill, and is now nominated expressly on the Douglas platform. The anti-Nebraska vote was hopelessly scattered, but would have been concentrated considerably in the course of three or four more ballots; but the Democratic minority attempted to adjourn the House after the second ballot, and succeeded after the fourth by the help of all the "National" Know Nothings and a small section of the Free Soil Members.

It is known, too, that the "National" Democratic candidate for Speaker received but one vote (if any) from New York, five or six from Pennsylvania, and none at all from Ohio, and that all the Free States but Illinois and California gave him hardly a vote. It required two or three Whig votes of Missouri, those of the three recreant Anti-Nebraska Democrats above named, and the Know Nothing from Texas, to carry Richardson's vote up to 74, which is less than a third of the entire vote cast. The "National" Know Nothings cast 30 for Humphrey Marshall, the representative of blood-stained Louisville, who obtained just three votes in all from the Free States—those of York, Whitney and Bayard Clarke of New York.

THE KANSAS OUTBREAK.—We entreat our readers to be patient and considerate, and not to believe implicitly the lock and bolt stories about "abolition outrages," which are sent to us over the wires from Kansas. We believe them to be more than half lies, of the most sable species. We do not believe that the people of Lawrence, after enduring so much for the sake of peace, have turned law breakers at last, and if there have been lawlessness and bloodshed, we shall hold a bit before we charge it to them. The "border ruffians" have a lively interest in this matter, and if some of them are shot, they will get no more than they have, again and again, most richly deserved. The first news of this affair, which resulted Jefferson City was contained in a private despatch from Mr. Boone, a citizen of Jackson county, Missouri, to Mr. McCarthy, a member of the Missouri Legislature. "We went help," said Mr. Boone. What help did he, a citizen of Missouri, want? What had the Legislature of Missouri to do with the affair? Busy as the devil usually is in that interesting State, it does not appear that any particular tantrums required "help" within its borders at that particular. "Help" was needed by the Missouri interlopers in Kansas, if by anybody. There may have been a quarrel, and some particularly bright and whiskified spirit may have got more than he bargained for; but we know that the free-soil settlers have not commenced the fight. Stringfellow boasted, Oct. 6th, in these words: "Missourians have done it—Missourians can do it again." Perhaps they have "done it" once too often.—Boston Atlas.

TOTAL DEPRAVITY.—The Eastern steamer had rung the last bell, and was about casting off when a well dressed person, who had been standing for some time on the dock, hurriedly approached a poor barefoot shivering boy who was selling cigars at the corner. The cigars were two and three cents apiece. Taking a three cent cigar, he handed the lad a one dollar bill, at the same time urging him to be "quick with the change," as the boat was just agoing. The poor boy scraped all his little stock of expenses and pennies together, and made up ninety-seven cents, which he passed over, and the fellow jumped on board the departing boat.

On inquiry of a gentleman near by as to the genuineness of the bill, it turned out to be a note on the Shipbuilders' Bank of Rockland, and worthless. The grief of the friendless boy on learning his loss, and the cruel swindle that had been practiced on him, was painful to witness. Who, after this, can doubt the doctrine of total depravity.—Boston Mail.

FISCAL ESTIMATES.—The following is a summary statement of the estimates of appropriations required by the Secretary of the Treasury:

For deficiencies of the current fiscal year, $1,367,757; of which $1,188,181 is to supply the deficiency in the post office revenues.

The estimate of permanent and indefinite appropriations which may be required for the last three quarters of the current fiscal year under former acts of Congress, is $5,5228,

The estimate for the next fiscal year, including appropriations by former acts of Congress of a permanent and indefinite character is $52,754,624, excluding the permanent and indefinite appropriations, the amount of $46,146,675; to which must be added the unexpended existing appropriations not required for the present fiscal year, $16,695,

Total estimates for the next fiscal year, $69,450,492.

SAVED BY HIS WIFE'S CORPSE.—A shocking incident of the preservation of life by a corpse is given in Lloyd's Steamboat Directory. A Mr. Walters, a passenger on the steamer Anthony Wayne, was taking from Chicago back to Philadelphia the remains of a fond and loving wife, to be buried among relations and friends. During the trip the ill-fated boat exploded all her boilers, killing nearly every one on board. Mr. W. was lifted several hundred feet into the air, and fell into the water almost lifeless. The night was dark and dreary, and in his frantic struggles to keep himself afloat, he accidentally struck against a box, to which he clung all night long with desperation. When daylight appeared, he discovered to his horror that the box which had saved his life contained the corpse of his wife!

MR. ALLARD.—We are happy to learn, that Mr Allard of this city, contractor for building Custom Houses in this State, is now better. His case has been one of violent Typhus Fever, which was the occasion of his being delirious at times during his sickness. There was a misconception as to the character of his disease. It was at first thought to be insanity; but his state of mind was only the effect of the fever which was upon him, and was nothing more nor less than the delirium which usually characterizes this malignant disease. His numerous friends will be happy to learn that he is now doing well, under the care of one of our best physicians. Papers which copied our notice of his sickness will please insert this.—Belfast Free Press.

SUDDEN DEATH. Mary Annable, well known in this city, as a washerwoman and house-cleaner, a person of extraordinary robustness of habit and constitution, died very suddenly on Saturday evening last. We learn that she had been for a few days troubled with a slight cough, and on Saturday evening, a few minutes after returning home from her work, commenced coughing and went to the door, when a large stream of blood spirted from her mouth a distance of several feet, and in less than one minute she was a corpse.—Augusta Banner.

Reported for the Whig & Courier.

Closing of Reformers—Lecture by Wendell Phillips.

The election is often urged against reform, that it is attended with excessively severe and agitating, that it makes men and government and church, with more of malice than of wisdom, and thus do harm.

It is proposed to offer suggestions as to the most effective means of bringing about a reform.

The poverty of American works of art, that they lack originality. Now there is in public opinion a tendency to the same unattractiveness. We demand that our reformers should be English; that is such as we find in history. But a strong under-current belies this. In his beautiful parting address to the Pilgrims, Robinson bids them to remember that God has new truths to reveal. Had he spoken by prophecy, he could not have better spoken.

The demand that the reformer be moderate is European, and not American. It is the want of moderation that is charged against radical reformers. In the old world it may be well to address classes and institutions, in order to effect reforms. We need not agitate the mass, because the reform may take shelter in some class, or beneath some existing institution. But in this country, we have no institutions deserving the name.

It is asked, why not appeal to existing arrangements? Did our fathers, when they abolished institutions and set up man, set his afloat on the sea of ideas. We are guided by public opinion; we hold everything at the bidding of the people. Hence the influence of the New York Tribune is greater than that of Pierce—the morning newspaper more effective than office and rank.

It is supposed that reform may be effected through one of these four instrumentalities, viz: Wealth, Party, Literature, or the Church.

Our wealth is not like that of the Old World, independent and aristocratic, but it is trading wealth. He would not complain of this, for it is a short-sighted criticism that flings in the face of Americans their love for money. God meant that they should grow rich, when he gave them the continents stretching westward to the ocean. But will you find a reformer in Wall street or State street, where twelve per cent. is the only argument? The money is in the hands of those who look to the past or present, not for reputation, but for gain, and who care for peace that their commerce may float in safety.

Perchance through literature reform may make headway. But have we an independent literature? Can we patronize the servility of your own gifted poets? Or the grander atrociousness of the Harpers, a monthly house, that might afford the luxury of free nativeness; but it does not publish a French or English review that rebukes slavery. The Sabbath-School Union, a boding rich and prosperous, called in an anti-slavery tract of fifteen pages, which in a moment of accidental virtue it had sent forth. A noble exception is Emerson and Lowell among poets. The glory of Emerson is the greatest, because he dares to wait the judgment of a later half century.

Perhaps you say there is strength in parties, in leaders such as Clay and Webster. It is easy to mistake the nature of parties; especially up, among a people so much in the habit of counting votes.

To obtain the privilege, we struggled long against kings and nobles. Like other privileges, it has its responsibilities, its liabilities to abuse. It has been maintained that voting can determine abstract right and wrong. But in politics we have only compromise. Only when the reformer has taken off the rough edge will the politician step forth and stereotype the reform into a party. Thus most a pioneer go before the representative statesman of ideas.—While a statesman, the Intellect brow God ever built, bowed his crest to the lowest temptation of the day, a plain, honest Quaker on whose dear fell sharp, derisive words, uncovered his grey hairs and replied: "I have not a dollar left, but when a poor fugitive needs food and shelter, direct him to me." The one a politician's course, the other a private man's sentiment.

Perhaps in the church. But this like others human institutions, obeys the laws of cause and effect. The pews [illegible] the pulpit, supports it—shall not the pulpit obey the pews?

Did I come here to please you? Not. Twenty years since I surrendered reputation; I shall not spare the truth now. Arraign me if I misstate the truth.

We must then appeal, not to merchants, nor to parties—not to colleges, nor yet to churches—but to the masses: for all these classes are but the reflection of the ideas of the mass.

But it is vain to present to the mass abstract measures. They impersonate ideas in men.—So Protestantism in Luther, the Tariff in Clay, the Constitution in Webster, found their impersonations.

But how shall the reformer restrain man in power. I am elected, says the latter—I will do my pleasure. But I will write, says the reformer, "RECREANT" over your name. I will outlive you in my successors, and will brand your name in history, so that centuries hence the youngest descendant shall blush to wear it.

Some men lay all evils on the heads of reformers. Like the Hindoo who crushed the microscope, they suppose if they could crush reformers, the evil would cease. So men have thought: but truth has floated farther from the mob than from elegant life.

Let us then thank for ourselves. Let us do it now while there is need, ere temptation and habit and indolence come upon us. Let us preserve our youthful, buoyant activity of thought. Put aside every fear. The children are ever rearing marble to cover the martyr whom their fathers slew.

ENTERPRISE OF THE BANGOREANS.—The business men of Bangor are not exceeded in New England for enterprise and business capacity. Within a few weeks we have noticed about our wharves in Belfast and Searsport an unusual activity; some forty rafts of boards, &c., having been towed down the river from Bangor to these places, for exportation to our domestic ports and to the West Indies. By this means the business men of Bangor are enabled to ship lumber during the entire winter, which they cannot

TELEGRAPHIC

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

Congressional News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.

23d ballot. Richardson 73, Campbell 76.—Mr Campbell then rose, and after thanking his friends for their support throughout the 23 ballots, he declared that he had become convinced that it would be impossible for his friends to succeed in electing him, unless he could perform one or two conditions, namely: Repudiate his well known opinions on Slavery and Americanism, or in some way, directly or indirect, make pledges as to the organization of committees which would amount to a sacrifice of his self respect, and make him, in his own judgment, a fit subject for public contempt. Under these circumstances, and feeling that the interests of the country required the speedy organization of the House, and regarding these interests as paramount to every other consideration, he withdrew his name as a candidate.

24th ballot. Richardson 74; Banks 41; Fuller 19, Pennington 18; Wheeler 11; Zollicoffer 15; Thurston 11; Washburn of Me, 6; Howard 4; Tappan 3, Woodruff 2; Meacham 5; Campbell and nine others, 1 each.

The Republicans are holding a caucus to-night to arrange the programme for to-morrow, when Banks, it is thought, will nearly double his vote of to-day, and there half. An election to-morrow is thought to be improbable.

The House adjourned at the close of the 27th ballot—Richardson 72, Banks 44, Fuller 23 Pennington 18, Wheeler 10, Zollicoffer 12 Thurston 6, Washburn of Me, 8, Howard 3, Tappan 4, Meacham 5, Woodruff 2, eleven others 1 each.

Fire and a State Prison.

NEW YORK, 7th.

A serious fire occurred in the State Prison at Sing Sing yesterday, several of the work shops being completely destroyed. Loss to the State about $15,000.) Mr Watson, hat contractor, loses $60,000, insured for $39,000. None of the convicts escaped—notwithstanding the prison was very full—137 males, 107 females.

Steamer George Law sailed to-day, full of passengers for California.

Election of Judge in N. Y.

ALBANY, Dec. 7.

The whole vote of New York city and county for Judge for the long term of the Court of Appeals, as returned by the canvassers for Samuel L. Selden. This will compel the State canvassers to give the certificate of election to Mr Campbell. Selden has no middle name. Selden was on the Hard and Soft tickets—Campbell on the K. N. ticket.

Three Steamers Burnt.

St. Louis, Dec. 7.

Three steamers were burned at our levee to-night. Loss $75,000, partially insured. No lives lost.

Markets.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.

Flour, common grades 10 to 15 lower. Limited demand for export and home consumption. Common to extra State 8,37 @ 9,00; mixed to fancy Michigan 8,75 @ 9,25; Indiana, Wisconsin and Ohio 9,87 @ 11,25; state 9.

Rye flour quiet at 5,50 @ 7.

Buckwheat in demand at 2,87 @ 3,12 per bbl. Wheat dull and dragging, scarcely any demand. Red com. 2,10; white Canadian 2,20; red western nominal 2 @ 2,08.

Rye firmer.

Corn easier. Western mixed 99 @ 1,00.

Oats dull at 48 @ 51.

Pork lower. Mess 22,75 @ 25,50; prime 18,25 @ 18,50.

Sugars are dull with small sales at rather easier prices.

Molasses sold at 45 for Rio.

Coffee 11 @ 12.

A correspondent of the Tribune telegraphs as follows respecting Mr Fuller of Pa for whom some of the anti-Nebraska members have been voting for Speaker.

Mr. Fuller, in reply to the questionings of certain members, declared himself in favor of admitting Kansas with or without slavery, provided she has sufficient population and other constitutional requisites. This declaration has produced considerable excitement, particularly among the Republican members. The Pennsylvania delegation had a conference this evening (5th) and resolved to cling to Fuller.

Some of the Southern K. Ns were inclined to take up Fuller.

The Washington Globe of 4th says:

If the House shall not organize to-day, we think it probable it will not do so for weeks to come. Our opinion is that it will come to this at last—the Free Soilers will get the Speaker, and the Americans the balance of the officers.

The Louisville Courier contains a dispatch from Missouri which betrays, to some extent, the plans of the pro-slavery men:

WESTON, Mo., Nov. 30, P. M. The greatest excitement continues to exist in Kansas. The officers have been resisted by the mobocrats, and the interposition of the militia has been called for.

A secret letter from Secretary Woodson to Gen. Easton has been written, in which the writer requests Gen. E. to call for the Rifle Company at Platte City, so as not to compromise Gov. Shannon.

400 men from Jackson county Missouri, are now en route for Kansas. St. Joseph and Weston, Mo., are to furnish each the same number of men. The people of Kansas are to be subjugated at all hazards.

PISCATAQUIS CO. TREASURER. The Commissioners have recently canvassed the votes, and declare Mr C. H. B. Woodbury (Republican) elected. He received 1271 votes; F. K. Drake 1209.

RAIL. & POST. R. R. There is now no morning train to Augusta. The evening train arrives at Augusta at 10. A train leaves for Kendall's Mills at 8 A. M.

Rev Adoniram Willey sailed for Havana on the 23d ult. He spends the winter in the West Indies for the recovery of his health.

DR GUILD'S IMPROVED

Non-Explosive Camphene & Fluid

LAMPS and CANDLES

HAVING purchased the Patent right for the above Lamps, are now prepared to offer them to purchasers in this vicinity, adapted to the use of Parlors, Chambers, Stores, Factories, Vessels, Steamboats and Railroads.

These lamps are constructed on scientific and philosophical principles, and are the only ones for preservation against explosions from flampoints of Burning Fluids, being made of the most durable material, not subject to accident from breaks or corrosion—will burn freely without smoke; give an equal and steady light, (the nearest to the sun ever produced.)

The above lamps have proved, after thorough and careful trial, to be the best Lamps in use, giving universal satisfaction, and burning perfectly safe.

These Lamps will be sold at wholesale or retail as low as the ordinary Camphene and Fluid Lamps, by J. S. BREER, 16 Main Street, Bangor, Me., dealer in Lamps, Chimneys, Glass, and Country Ware.

Crystalotype Portraits.

DAGUERREOTYPES can be accurately copied by the new Photographic process, enlarged to any required size, and beautifully colored if desired. Portraits can be obtained from the life by this process, requiring no longer sitting than for a common daguerreotype, thus avoiding the serious inconvenience and fatigue of long sittings. Glass daguerreotypes, a new article of unsurpassed richness and delicacy, are now, for the first time in Bangor, offered to the public. Their great brilliancy and perfection renders them peculiarly suitable for Pins, Lockets, &c. The Public are invited to call and examine specimens at HARDY'S Portrait Gallery, Exchange street, a short distance below the Bangor House.
